

Week 10 | The Right Kind of Notice

1. Catch Up On Life:

As a church family, we care about each other's lives: what we're celebrating, what we're mourning, what decisions we are praying through, and everything in between (1 Thessalonians 2:8, Romans 12:10, 15).

Suggested time: 10-20 minutes

- How are you doing?
- What can you thank God for this week?
- When were you most aware of Jesus' presence this week? When were you least aware of Jesus' presence this week?
- Do you have any practical needs? (If so, please visit our Needs page)

2. Review the Mission:

Just like God the Father sent Jesus on a mission of reconciliation for us, Jesus sends us out as ambassadors of His reconciliation. We are called to make disciples wherever we go. (John 20:21 and 2 Corinthians 5:18-20)

Suggested time: 10-20 minutes

- People: Who in your life can you be building with right now? What does that look like during this season?
- Plan: Are there any rhythms planned (virtual or in-person) that we can invite these friends into? What spiritual conversations do you want to initiate with them soon?
- Pray: Let's pray for our people by name; pray for their needs, opportunities to connect, and opportunities to have spiritual conversations that help them take next steps toward Jesus.

3. Scripture & Sermon Discussion:

God uses His Word to reveal Himself to us, equip us to live the good life He's designed for us, show us our sin, and strengthen us as we follow Him (2 Timothy 3:16-17, Colossians 1:9-12, and James 1:22-25).

Suggested Time: 20-40 minutes

i. Scripture Discussion

Primary Passages: Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18

Read Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18 out loud. Spend some time silently reflecting and journaling the following questions as a LifeGroup.

- What stands out from the passage?
- What does this passage reveal to us about God?
- What does this passage reveal to us about people?
- Share with one another what you thought, reflected, and wrote about.

ii. Sermon Discussion

What stood out to you from the sermon?

In the sermon, Jesus warns us against “theatrical righteousness” - doing things as a performance for the applause of others. What are some examples you’ve seen in your life of theatrical righteousness? In what areas are you tempted to perform for others? What group do you tend to perform for?

In the examples shared, what were the primary motives behind performing for others? What was the reward?

Repentance looks like practicing our righteousness with God alone as the audience. When we cultivate this sort of “secrecy” we experience God’s rewards rather than others. In light of that, what’s one thing you can begin practicing this week to cultivate secrecy?

Let’s spend some time praying out loud for ourselves and another - that we would obey God, that we would root out selfish, misplaced motives, and that we would experience the reward of His delight.

4. Engage the Heart:

Jesus calls us to walk in the light, confessing our sins to God and each other. God’s Spirit works through confession and community to lead us to repentance. (Romans 3:23-24, James 5:16 and 1 John 1:5-10)

Suggested Time: 10-20 minutes

- How are you doing abiding with Jesus this week in Scripture and prayer? (If you haven’t yet, consider following along in our Matthew Bible Reading Plan and working through our practice for this series, journaling.)
- What sin do you need to confess to God? What are you struggling to trust Jesus with this week? How can you give Him control of it? (As people confess sin, make sure to remind one another of the good news Jesus offers. If need be, use the worksheet “Go-to Verses for Gospel Fluency” at FollowingJesusTogether.com/confession)

Pray: Close your time together by praying for one another

- Pray for the Spirit to work in you as you take steps of repentance
- Pray for God to meet the needs of those in your group
- Pray for the sick and vulnerable at this time of crisis
